

OPNFF Fatherhood Center Evaluation Rubric 2014

Achievement Award
Due Date: April 30
Submission:
Criteria	Non-Performance	Proficient Performance	Distinguished Performance
Abstract: Summarizes of program or service relating to healthy, responsible fatherhood	Does not summarize abstract of program or service relating to healthy, responsible fatherhood	Provides a general summary of program or service relating to healthy, responsible fatherhood	Provides a concise, well-organized summary with examples & evidence that fully explains the program or service relating to healthy, responsible fatherhood
Problem or Needs Statement: Provides a problem statement or needs statement for the program or service	Does not provide a problem statement or needs statement for the program or service	Provides a basic problem statement or needs statement for the program or service	Provides a problem statement or needs statement for the program or service; includes details about the community and shows an in-depth knowledge of needs in the context of healthy fatherhood
Description of the Program or Service: Explains the program or service	Does not describe or explain the program or service	Describes or explains the program or service with basic details that help support replication efforts	Describes or explains the program or service with well-defined details, such as strategies for implementation, activities or steps taken, applications of stakeholder theory, unique attributes
Costs of Implementation: Required resources	Does not list costs of implementation or required resources	Lists costs of implementation and required resources	Identifies costs and required resources, including community relationships or non-financial assets needed for replication; suggests ways to obtain resources
Results and Successes	Does not identify results or successes of program or services	Identifies results and successes of program or services	Provides outcomes, results and successes with quantitative & qualitative assessments
Worthiness of an Achievement Award: Justification or Evaluation	Does not justify the program or services for worthiness of an award	Justifies the program or services for worthiness of an award	Justifies the program or service for worthiness of an award with clear evidence of how the program or services filled a gap in the community or in the field of healthy fatherhood